Little Naturalists Program

I Spy Nature!!!

Wednesday, April 24, 2019 • 10:30am-12pm
Target Rock National Wildlife Refuge

Children with their adults will engage in a beginners' naturalist hike along woodland trails and beachside habitats. Enjoy using your senses to explore this beautiful refuge. Look closely at different plants and signs of animals along the way. Keep track of your sightings on your own beginners' naturalist checklist (provided).

- Please register by April 21, by calling (631) 896-2872.
- Meet at Target Rock National Wildlife Refuge: 12 Target Rock Road, Huntington. Parking fee is $4.00.
- Dress for moderate to strenuous (hilly terrain) outdoor activity. Bring extra water and snacks for your comfort, restrooms are available.
- Please check our Facebook (facebook.com/hobaudubon) and website at hobaudubon.org for the latest on scheduled and additional events
